LOVE AND HATE

AŞK VE MAVİ

Ali is the son of a wealthy family, in his thirties. He is prisoned for a long time for murdering a man called Ahmet. Ali has been exchanging letters for the last years of his imprisonment with a girl, Mavi. When Ali's penalty ends, Mavi comes to meet him on his first day of freedom. Ali and Mavi almost know each other, thanks to the letters they have been sending. Ali and Mavi decide to get married after a short while.

Mavi didn't choose Ali out of all the people in prison as a pen friend just by coincidence. Mavi is Ahmet's sister who died years ago and her life turned into a nightmare after this incident. She wants to kill Ali on their wedding night as her brother is also killed on his wedding. But she doesn't know the truth. The real murderer is Ali's brother Cemal. Ali, took the blame and went to prison instead of his brother because Cemal is married and has kids.

In fact, Ali saw Mavi's ID during the marriage procedures and learned the truth but kept silent, for the name of love. Mavi stabs Ali on their wedding night.

Ali, takes a few scars and says he won't file a complaint if Mavi accepts to live together. Mavi tries to object this decision but an impossible love would begin between them.

ORPHAN FLOWERS

KIRGIN ÇİÇEKLER

Eylül is tired of her stepfather's abuse and she tells this situation to her mother and her life changes: Her mother prefers giving Eylül to an orphanage instead of leaving her husband. Eylül will make different friends in that orphanage which is newly opened in the middle of a luxurious neighborhood. These girls who are excluded from the society are humiliated and slandered by rich guys of the area. When none of the public schools accept them because of this slander, the dormitory principal registers them to the luxurious private college of the neighborhood. Now life is more difficult for Eylül and her three friends among the rich and spoiled guys in their new school.

Cemre and Defne, who always bully Eylül and her friends at the college, are one of the richest families. One day Cemre's father, Sinan, commits a suicide and he also kills his wife accidentally. Relatives of Sinan neither undertake his debt nor adopt Cemre. Therefore Cemre is obliged to settle into an orphanage. Defne and her rich friends turn their back on Cemre but Eylül and her friends at the orphanage hold Cemre's hand.

On one hand Eylül and her friends, who try to stand upright against the board of collage and spoiled students of the school who are seeking an opportunity to expel them, and at the same time they try to find their families, to solve life problems. They will learn big lessons from these dilemmas and they will learn to fall in love, to make mistakes, to overcome the problems altogether by collaborating with each other. This is the survival story of young girls in their big world...

BEN ONU ÇOK SEVDİM

A young woman, as a witness in Yassıada trial, gets interrogated about her relationship with Adnan Menderes, the Prime Minister of his time. The judge asks her if she knows that Adnan is married, if he killed her baby and if she is ashamed of being his mistress or not. The young woman answers: "I love him so much!" This project is about well-known but unspoken love between Adnan Menderes, the prime minister of his time, and his beloved mistress Ayhan Aydan. The story begins with the hardest years of Democrat Party. While news of martyrs from the Korean War spreads around the country, intense opposition from Republican People's Party (RPP) also creates high tension on Adnan Menderes. On the other hand, his love for his children and unemotional but constructive support of his wife help him to stand. However, his meeting with Ayhan Aydan starts an inevitable and problematic love affair in such a period. Moreover, Ayhan, with her only child, passes through rough marriage process. Although her marriage is about to be over, her relationship with Adnan creates tension in both sides and Adnan's wife Berrin gets affected the most.

DANGEROUS LOVE

SAMANYOLU

An enduring love story... Two children of two sisters, brought up in the same mansion like brother and sister, yield one night to the love that they have felt for each other for so long. They are fated to be close to each other for only one night when their lips touch under the Milky Way. This kiss dooms these two youngsters to break apart. The boy buries this impossible love deep into his heart and goes far away, leaving the girl behind. However, the memory of this kiss deepens more with every passing year... The Story Outline... Nejat chooses to lead a life far away from her but everything changes when Zülal writes him a letter explaining that his father is about to die. He returns to Istanbul with the excuse of seeing his father, but deep inside he's excited by the thought of seeing her again. After many years he sees his father on his death bed and says his farewell. He hears words of regret from his father's lips, but cannot forget his childhood and only pities him. His father, a rich businessman, married again soon after his mother's death, and he was brought up by his mother's sister. Now, his stepmother does her best to quicken his father's death so that his assets are transferred into her name. His mother's sister welcomes him home, and when she learns of his love for her daughter, confesses that she is not her real daughter to relieve her guilty conscience. Yet, she cannot reveal this to her and his best friend enters her life. He is trapped in an impossible situation between his step-mother, his best friend and the secret he knows.
